

It is a great blessing when we learn about Allah because we are not learning about creations or anything else. We are learning about Allah Who is above the seven heavens.

We will know more about Him when we learn His Most Beautiful Names.

In this book we will learn the Name of Allah

Al Wali – The Loving Companion.

It is a nice feeling to long for the Names of Allah and learn more about Him.

The word “wali” means someone who loves us, is close to us, is like a friend, always stands on our side, supports us and gives us victory. The more someone is closer to us, the more they will help and support us. Who is the closest one to us?

Allah Al Wali – The Loving Companion.

Allah is Wali to all the creations,
whether they are in the heavens,
in the earth or below the sea.

Allah Al Wali is the One Who disposes our affairs.
We belong to Him and He provides us, protects us and guides us. Allah is Al Wali to all the creation, wherever they may be.

We might say there is no one near to us or there is no one to help us out, but Allah is Wali (A Loving Companion) to everyone.

He takes care of all of us,
the believer and nonbeliever.
Allah is Wali to the young and old.

Allah Al Wali brings all that is good to us and He pushes evil and harm away from us, even if we cannot see it.

Allah Al Wali never separates from us and is always with us, even though He is above the seven heavens and He rose over The Throne.

Allah never separates or cuts off from us.
Something very important to know is when a person believes more in Allah and has more taqwa (does not follow their desires), then Allah will be their Wali even more. What does that mean?

Allah will not only give, provide and guide them, but He will love them because they believe in Him.

They always want to draw closer to Allah; they always think of Allah and are grateful to Him. The more a believer comes closer to Allah, the more Allah will come closer to them.

When Allah loves someone, Allah will always take them out from darkness to light. What does it mean to be taken out from darkness to light?

When a person believes, Allah will take them out from the darkness of doubts and sins to the light of obedience and goodness. This means a person might not pray, but then Allah will make them pray.

The more a person believes, the more Allah will love them, help them, make them from the muhsineen (excellent doers), make them reach the highest levels in jannah and make performing good deeds easy for them.

Even if someone wants to harm that person or there's a shaitan, no one can harm them because Allah is their Wali, and they believe in Him. Allah will defend them and keep them firm. He will support them and always give them victory.

If we want Allah to always be with us, defend us and give us victory, we have to always be believers.

WHEN WE BELIEVE IN ALLAH AL WALI...
WHAT SHOULD WE DO?

When we believe, we will not fear any harm or evil because Allah is our Wali and He will help us.

The more a person believes, the more this person will be from awliya Allah, those whom Allah loves. And He will take care of all their needs.

If they need something,
Allah will give them.

If they fear something,
Allah will give them security.

If they are lost,
Allah will guide them.

All of their life will be easy; it will not be difficult.
They will never be alone because Allah is their Wali. He will be near to them and love them. And if Allah loves us then all goodness will come to us.

If we want to go to jannah and do good deeds that will take us to jannah, Who can take us? Allah Al Wali. Who will keep us away from the fire and bring all good close to us?

ALLAH AL WALI.

Allah Al Wali brings the path of jannah near to us and the path of the fire away from us.

We always want the Companionship of Allah and we should always be near the believers and give them victory because they are awliya Allah.
