Garden of the Names of Allah AL KAREEM

Welcome to the GARDEN OF THE NAMES OF ALLAH.

Where do find the Names of Allah?
From the Qur'an and Sunnah because only Allah can tell us about Himself.

In this book we will learn the Name of Allah
AL KAREEM – THE MOST GENEROUS.

How many times is the Name of Allah

Al Kareem – The Most Generous –
mentioned in the Qur'an? Twice.

Once in Surah Al Naml which tells us about the story of Suleiman (عليه السلام) and how he was given kingdom and a great throne was brought to him. Allah Al Kareem gives without any limit.

And the other time the Name of Allah Al Kareem is mentioned is in Surah Al Infitaar. Allah is so generous and gives so much, even if a person still does bad and does not listen to Allah. So when Allah gives us and we are not doing good, we should not be deceived with ourselves.

What is the meaning of “kareem”? It means someone who gives so much and does not fear it will become less.

It also means someone who is very beautiful, beneficial and nice.

We also say “precious stones” (أحجار كريمة) which means they have great value.

ALLAH IS AL KAREEM
and no one can be more generous than Him.

He gives the believer,
He gives the disbeliever and
He gives us before we even ask.
So when He gives us, it is all
out of His generosity.

And out of His generosity,
when we raise our hands,
He is too shy to return us empty-headed. So when we ask Him, then for sure He gives us.

Allah Al Kareem does not always account and punish the people for their sins. Rather, He pardons and overlooks them.

No matter how great our sins
may be, Allah is more generous and out of His generosity, He replaces our sins to good deeds.

Out of His generosity,
Allah is happy when we repent.

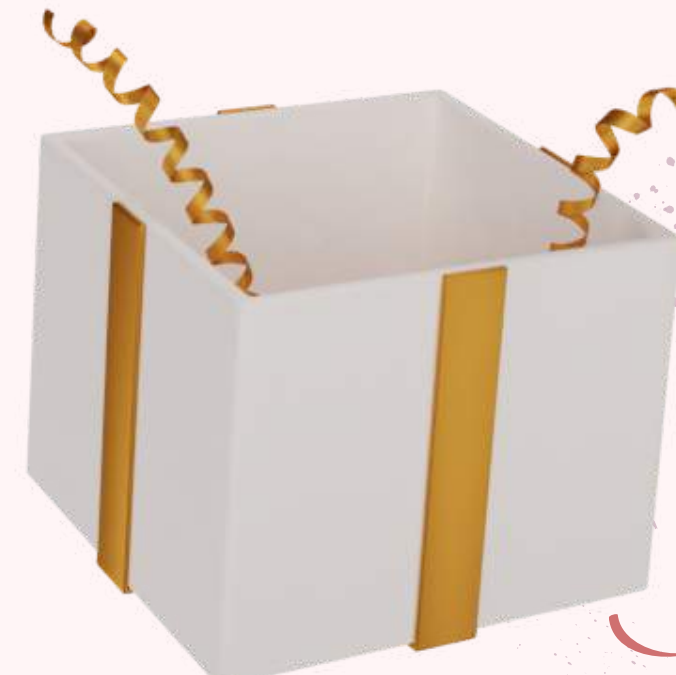

It does not matter to Allah how much He gives us. No matter how much He gives, it will never lessen for Him.

When Allah gives us, it is from His generosity and beauty.

The Prophet (ﷺ) was very generous despite not having much. He was generous to the young and old, and he never feared being poor because he knows Allah Al Kareem is always generous and gives.

May Allah Al Kareem make us generous people and that we are generous to our parents, spouses and children. We always want to pardon them.

When a guest would arrive at the Prophet's home, he would always offer him something.

Knowing Allah Al Kareem is a great treasure. May Allah Al Kareem give us all that we need.

We never want to be tight, miserly or greedy. It is all from the generosity of Allah when He gives us so that we can give.

The generosity of Allah has no limit or boundary.
His generosity is so vast.
He gives without any limit.

When Allah honors us, He honors us with something beneficial such as homes, cars, the sky, the sun, moon, health and free time.

From His generosity,
He gives us faith, good deeds and good people to be with us in this life.

He honors us by giving us love and happiness. It is from the generosity of Allah to never make us lost and never make us turn away from Him.

Allah Al Kareem is so generous to give us feelings.

Allah Al Kareem has a great position and no one can be higher and more honorable than Him.

WHEN WE BELIEVE IN ALLAH
AL KAREEM...
WHAT SHOULD WE DO?

Before we ask others or expect from them, we should ask Allah Al Kareem to honor us in this life and next with mercy, love, richness and guidance.

If there is anything missing in our life, we should ask Allah Al Kareem. He will never turn us away.

We should be generous with others, especially with our manners before our wealth. We should speak well, show respect to each other and give them food. And if they make a mistake, we should not expose it, but forgive and overlook.

We want to be generous with everyone – the young and old.
A person should not be miserly.

There is no one more generous than

Allah.

We love Allah
AL KAREEM
