

TAFSEER OF THE QUR'AN

SURAH AN NASR

(سورة النصر)

CHILDREN SERIES

INTRODUCTION

Surah An Nasr is 110th surah of the Qur'an.

The word “nasr” means victory and winning.
We all want to win.

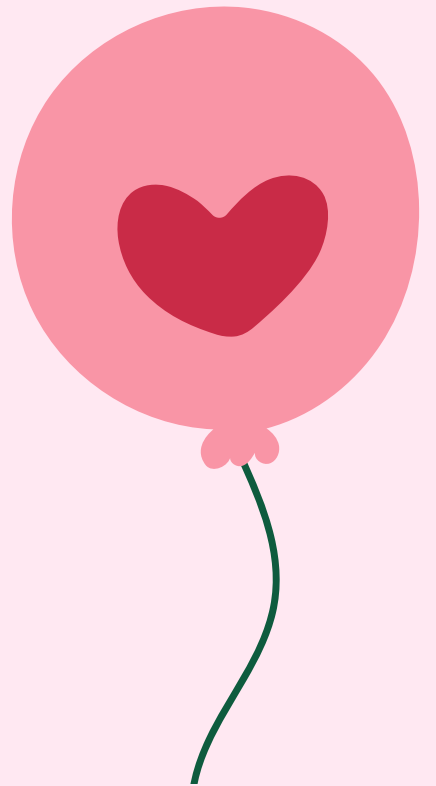

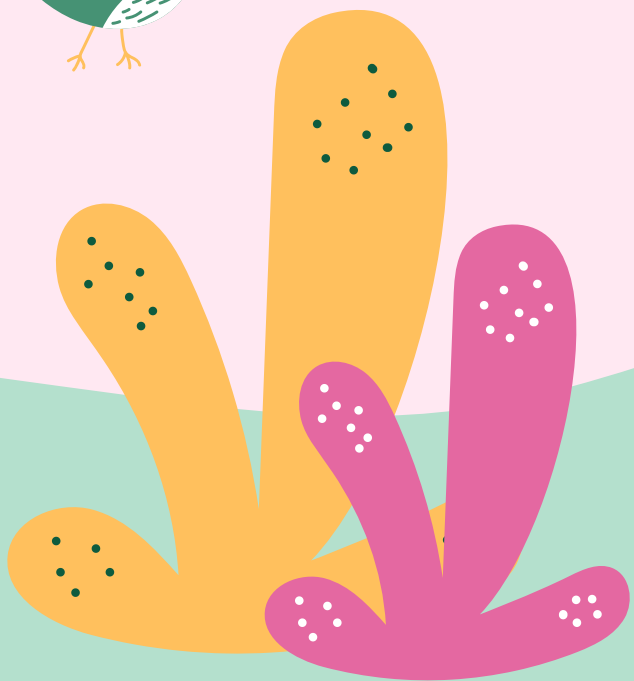

Surah An Nasr came down on the Prophet (ﷺ) bringing good news to him.

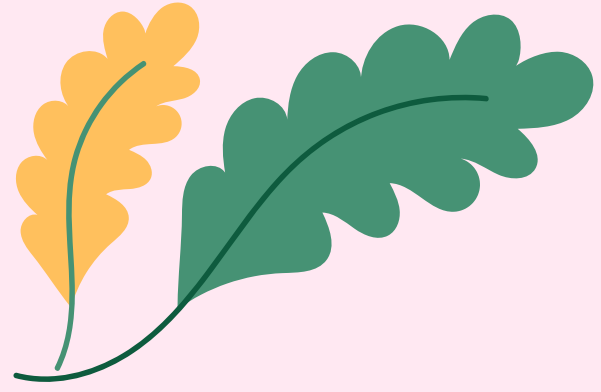

The true winning and success is when we talk about Allah, the people enter Islam and they love Allah.

When we hear about Allah, we want to tell others what we learned like our parents, brothers, sisters and friends because we also want them to love Allah.

The Prophet (ﷺ) is our Messenger and when he tells the people about Allah and they worship Him then that is true success.

When we see many people becoming Muslim and they start to love Allah, read the Qur'an and start to pray. This is good news and it makes us very happy.

Allah gives good news to the Prophet (ﷺ) that many people will become Muslim.

So what does the Prophet (ﷺ) have to do?

He has to be grateful, how?

AYAHA 3

وَاسْتَغْفِرُهُ

and seek His forgiveness

رَبِّكَ

(of) your
Lord

بِحَمْدِكَ

with praises

فَسَبِّحْ

Then glorify

تَوَابًا

Oft Returning

كَانَ

is إِنَّهُ

Indeed He

Prophet (ﷺ) is not the one who made them enter Islam, it is Allah Who made them enter.

So the Prophet (ﷺ) has to praise and thank Allah so much. He has to thank Allah for choosing him to talk to people about Allah and Islam.

He has to seek forgiveness from Allah in order to get a complete reward.

One of the names of Allah is At Tawwab, He allowed the Prophet (ﷺ) to talk about Him and the Qur'an, and then the people entered Islam.

Allah wants to make the people to return back to Islam so they can enter paradise. Only the one who accepts Islam can enter paradise.

We all want to win. So when we learn anything, we teach others and are happy for this. When we do this, we will be rewarded.
