اقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ Recite in the Name of Your Lord

There are some things that are on hold or are not moving, but Allah brings a break so that it comes in the right way.

We can be deceived with the duniya and its attractions, and this can disable us from using what Allah has given us. It is important to remember all that Allah has given us is out of His generosity. He deals with us with favor, so we should not be deceived by it by not doing our best. Rather, we should do our best.

Everything is assembled in the best form. The fitra is there and Allah will bring it out.

The Day of Judgement is mentioned so that the right feelings about the duniya are brought out. The sky breaks, the stars scatter, the seas lose their boundaries and all the is buried in the graves will come out. Each will be accountable for what he did and left behind.

Goodness starts from the inside and evil shows from the outside. And there will be recompense for how we are with people.

All that we do are recorded by honorable angels. When we believe they are present and that they are sensitive to both good and evil, we will be more cautious of our behavior and our behavior with others.

A person does not want to break apart when Allah has created him in the best form.

يَا أَيُّهَا الْإِنسَانُ مَا غَرَّكَ بربِّكَ الْكَريم

O mankind, what has deceived you concerning your Lord, the Generous [Surah Al Infitaar 6]
